comments:

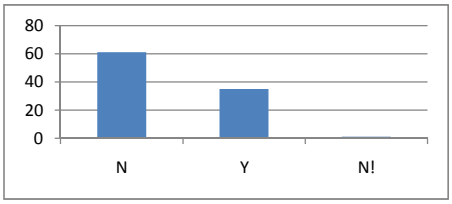
I would hope so.

3. Have you expressed any concerns you have with administrators?

61	N
35	Y
1	N!



comments:

On 1 survey, administrators was crossed out and teachers written in. Answer was Yes.

My biggest concern is the number of kids in math class (7th grade). Way too many for teacher to teach & kids to learn.

4. Did the administrator listen to your concerns and handle it in a professional manner?

comments:
Students don't tell us, bring info home - more on website or email blasts maybe.
Could be better - did discuss w/Mr Brown about making parents aware
- keeping updated about DC trip beginning in 6th grade

We have to seek info.

Web site can be hard to find important stuff.

comments:

Academically & socially.

Additional Comments:

"Concerned about proper classes being taken for college prep. Honors classes expected. Is capable of better grades."

"I find the format of the conferences to be highly frustrating.
Entirely too much time spent sitting at table waiting for teachers to come by.
At the time of this writing I have been sitting her for 45 minutes and have met only 3 of my daughter's teachers.
I only have concerns with one of her classes and this teacher has not acknowledged us yet.
It would be better if there were appointments or at least some sort of structure to this extremely inefficient format.
Update: after 1 1/2 hours, I give up."

"I would appreciate more tables at the next conference. Fabulous otherwise."

"My son loves his teachers!"

"no internet available in our area"

"Not real happy with the principal."

"Thanks for all your hard work!"

"The school could really work on their additional tutorial time with students after school at least 3 or 4 days out of the week then I bet some of the students probably will benefit from it."

"Very disappointed in Mrs. Jordan for giving most of her students "F"! They obviously need a little more help than others!!!!"

"We are very pleased with the school and it's staff. Mr Clark is the best! Do not loose him ever!"
