

Birch Street GLM-1.5 hour with subs
October, 2011

Family Coach-Rachael

Instructional Strategies (see next page as a possible way to share)

Classroom visits-let's try it again :)

Student Groups-any changes in students/programs

AIMSweb-scores

Resources-programs, lending library, teacher resources

title parapro-schedule switches at quarter
planning time

Child Study

- GLM is the time for filling out green form and sharing concerns/brainstorming ideas
- Bring the student's CA-60 and any testing data to GLM
- Title teachers can provide additional testing if needed
- Request for Educational Support (green form) must be filled out and turned in 1 week prior to Child Study meeting in order to bring a student up at Child Study

Next Child Study: November 3

A Ritual for Communicating...

“What’s Important Here!”

Focusing attention on what’s important and promoting positive group emotion is a crucial part of nurturing good collaboration. Instead of speeding through the agenda items at our meetings, let’s take time to share something from one of the categories below.

❖ Pursuit of Excellence

A personal or professional example of excellence. A lesson or activity that really worked well, a routine that creates efficient learning time, a fabulous resource book...We all have great things to share :)

❖ Pride

One thing our school does really well that I observed-share the details.

❖ Making a Difference

One educational miracle that I observed or participated in. You know those moments...they define why you are a teacher.

❖ Improvement

One thing I am doing better personally or professionally since our last meeting.