

Parents... We Need Your Help!

Bradley Chaplin, the new librarian, will be showing us all of the great things that the library has to offer.

Children will be able to give their input about new kids books the library should purchase!

Refreshments provided by Friends of the Library

When: February 2nd, 2012 at 3:30

Where: Kalkaska Public Library

Who: Parents and students from Mrs. Kasza's reading classes.

Why: You need to be present so your child can get a library card and be able to check books out on future field trips with Mrs. Kasza's reading class.

What's in your envelope?

- The library newsletter, with upcoming events and new books
- A bookmark with library hours and the website

Did you know that children who love to read are more likely to experience academic success?

Let's give our kids every chance that we are able!

Please return this portion to Mrs. Kasza so we know that you'll be joining us!
