

The Curriculum Development Council (CDC) is an important part of Kaskaska Public Schools. A team of teachers and administrators work to ensure that the district's curriculum meets the needs of students.

CDC agendas will be available on this site. The first meeting for the 2010-2011 school year will take place in October.