Dear Parents and Community Members:

We are pleased to present you with the Annual Education Report (AER) which provides key information on the 2012-2013 educational progress for the Rapid City Elementary. The AER addresses the complex reporting information required by federal and state laws. The school's report contains information about student assessment, accountability and teacher quality. If you have any questions about the AER, please contact Arica Zenner for assistance.

The AER is available for you to review electronically by visiting the following web site www.kpschools.com or you may review a copy in the principal's office at your child's school.

The state has identified some schools with the status of Reward, Focus or Priority. A Reward school is one that is outperforming other schools in achievement, growth, or is performing better than other schools with a similar student population. A Focus school is one that has a large achievement gap in 30% of its student achievement scores. A Priority school is one whose achievement and growth is in the lowest 5% of all schools in the state.

Our school has been identified as a Focus School for the 2012-2013 school year.

One key challenge is low achieving students within the area of mathematics. Rapid City Elementary staff is addressing this issue through ongoing progress monitoring, analysis of common assessments and daily math interventions. Another challenge for Rapid City is the achievement gap between high achieving students and low achieving students in the area of reading. We have implemented advanced programming to reach our accelerated students which has shown tremendous growth. The programs implemented for the low achieving students was not as productive, thus new intervention programs will be researched and implemented during the 2013-2014 school year.

State law requires that we also report additional information.
